

From: John Wilder
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/15/02 3:14pm
Subject: Comments

The government should get out of the watch dog business when there is no apparent reason to bother Microsoft.. I see no difference between what the government is doing to Microsoft and what Microsoft is doing to the public. All businesses have to protect themselves from crooks and thieves but the Government cannot sit by and let well enough alone. You pick on Microsoft and let Enron slide until the public is hurt. Give it up and let Microsoft get on with business.

John Wilder